Wait wait! Going back to university is...

Green University. A prestigious institute.

One of the highest ranking and most famous schools in the country.

The students here are the best and brightest in the nation, the cream of the crop.

Here, the students live unconstrained and easy-going lives.

However, there is an exception among these students. She who goes above and beyond what's expected of her-

On every subject, every test she always gets full marks (and bonus marks!) Her dissertations are always praised by all.

Never making a mistake, she is-

Push

-a giant bookworm.

Overwhelming energy

She doesn't own a cell phone,

doesn't surf the net,

doesn't watch TV,

doesn't care about popular entertainment-

Hey lady! Interested in joining our break-dance club?

I hope you can watch over us-

My-

Turning a blind eye

She has set her sights on a single goal-

To keep a record of her achievements in this sacred book-

Notebook

First years take note!
The legendary holy notebook!
Bow down!
So bright..!
A god among students! May I take a photo of your book?

You may not.
This sacred notebook is her most precious possession.
.....

To such an extent that she always keeps it on her!

Otherwise...

Oi, while the student god is in the restroom let's use this time to take a peep at her notebook!
Find it quickly!
Is she hiding it somewhere?
Sneak Sneak
Sneak Sneak

Because of these foul intentions...!
And to make the most of time spent in the restroom,
She reviews today's notes!
Where where!
Kyaaaa where is he!!
Quick catch him!
